WINE OF THE WEEK!

Bayten 2017 Sauvignon Blanc (South Africa)

Clean and lively, this dazzles with fresh aromas of green melon, plum and lemon curd that are accented by herbal notes of fresh-cut grass and sweet pea. The palate is prickly and nervy, with oodles of bright, mouthwatering citrus flavors and a touch of underripe peach.

90 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST

$11.99

Altos Las Hormigas 2017 "Colonia Las Liebres" Bonarda (Argentina)

Bold and super-fresh, this is an extremely expressive red with attractive cherry, blueberry, herbal and savory notes. You need to like tannins and acidity to get excited about this, but their interplay is exciting. A great food wine. Drink or hold.

92 POINTS JAMES SUCKLING

$9.99

Chateau Maris 2017 Minervois (France)

For drinking over the next few years, consider Maris's entry-level 2017 Minervois Maris. It boasts plenty of juicy, cherry-berry fruit, offers ample weight on the palate and finishes with silky tannins. It's not complex or age-worthy, but it'll go great with those rushed weeknight dinners or thrive as a by-the-glass pour at your local bistro.

87-89 POINTS WINE ADVOCATE

$10.99

Naveran 2016 Sparkling Brut Rosé Cava (Spain)

Melon and red-fruit aromas precede a plump foamy palate. Red-berry flavors are good but average, while this tastes savory and salty on a briny finish.

85 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST

$12.99

Jean Paul Brun 2017 Beaujolais Blanc Chardonnay (France)

The 2017 Beaujolais Blanc is a success, offering up notes of lemon oil, lime zest and pastry cream. On the palate, it's medium-bodied, juicy but sun-kissed, with a sweet core of fruit balanced by tangy acids.

87 POINTS WINE ADVOCATE

$14.99

Frassinello 2015 Poggio Alla Guardia (Italy)

Graphite, black pepper and sanguine aromas are matched with plum, tobacco and spice flavors in this beefy red. The muscular frame supports all the elements nicely. Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Sangioveto. Best from 2018 through 2024.
