Wine of the Week!

Gordo 2012 Monastrell/Cabernet Sauvignon (Spain)

A blend of 70% Monastrell and 30% Cabernet Sauvignon from an organic vineyard planted in 1970. Aged three months in French oak, it showcases the brilliant quality of the Mourvèdre grape from this sunny appellation. The wine boasts an opaque ruby/purple color along with notes of lead pencil shavings, blackberries, black raspberries and a hint of blueberries. The sensational fruit characteristics are pure as well as vivid. This full-bodied, opulent, stunningly savory, expansively flavored 2012 can be drunk over the next 2-3 years.

Mike's Picks of the Week!

Honoro Vera 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon (Spain)

Deep ruby. Perfumed scents of cassis, blackberry and cedary oak carry subtle tobacco and vanilla overtones. Juicy and focused on the palate, offering dark berry, bitter cherry and cracked pepper flavors that unfold slowly. Dusty tannins add shape and grip to the smoky finish, which hangs on with good spicy tenacity.

Bohigas 2015 Xarel-Lo (Spain)

This fleshy white shows pear and melon flavors, with depth and density. This is backed by firm acidity, featuring smoky and herbal notes on the finish. Not showy, but harmonious. Drink now. 7,000 cases made.

Castello di Farnatella 2014 Colli Senesi Chianti (Italy)

Easy does it: The 2014 Chianti Colli Senesi offers fresh fruit and food-friendly appeal. I found this wine to be more forthcoming and balanced compared to the two base 2014s presented by Felsina. Generous in terms of primary aromas, this Tuscan red makes a good pairing partner to most pasta or easy meat dishes.

Foxglove 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon (California)

The 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon from Foxglove hits the palate with notable depth and intensity. Dark red cherry, plum, mint, spice and leather shape the juicy, resonant finish. Drink this bold Paso Robles Cabernet over the next 2-3 years.

Castelfeder 2013 "Burgum Novum" Pinot Noir (Italy)

Castelfeder's 2013 Alto Adige Pinot Nero Riserva Burgum Novum is a bit closed at first but slowly opens to ripe berry aromas with raspberry and cassis. This Pinot Nero shows earthy notes with slight hints of tobacco and polished river stone. The mouthfeel is tonic and fresh with licorice and menthol notes that make nice finishing highlights.
