

WINE OF THE WEEK!

Terre Brulee 2017 Chenin Blanc (South Africa)

Pretty yellow apple, mirabelle plum and white peach flavors are gilded with honeysuckle and verbena notes. Shows good length on the finish, with a pretty whiff of shortbread. Chenin Blanc.

Indaba 2017 Chenin Blanc (South Africa)

Fresh and direct, with breezy pippin apple, kiwifruit and green almond flavors. Shows a light honeysuckle hint on the finish. Drink now.

88 POINTS WINE SPECTATOR

$6.99

Lapostolle 2016 "Grand Selection" Chardonnay (Chile)

Cherry blossom, preserved lemons and a touch of yellow apples. Medium-to-full body, no shortage of fresh citrus fruit that's supported by plenty of fresh acidity. Drink now.

91 POINTS JAMES SUCKLING

$9.99

Fox Run 2017 Semi-Dry Riesling (New York)

Sports an off-dry edge, with green apple, peach and honeysuckle notes bouncing through. The open-knit finish has enough zip to stay honest. Drink now.

87 POINTS WINE SPECTATOR

Fred Loimer 2017 "Lois" Gruner Veltliner (Austria)

Notes of juicy green pear characterize the nose. The palate is less defined when it comes to fruit but is easy, fluid, fresh and very light. This is almost translucent in flavor and has a dry finish.

Domaine Grand Veneur 2016 "Les Champavins" Cotes du Rhone (France)

Fleshy, primary black-plum and black-cherry flavors are tinged by burnt caramel and violet candy in this plump, silky wine. Full bodied and voluptuously textured, it finishes on soft, feathery tannins, with a whisper of smoke that lends elegance. Enjoy now-2023.
