Dupond 2015 "La Renjardiere" Cotes du Rhone (France)

Mike's Picks of the Week!

Cycles Gladiator 2014 Pinot Noir (California)

Cola and cranberry juice decorate the crushed asphalt and light peppercorn notes of the nose on this bottling by Adam Lazzare and company. The palate plays the slightly underripe card, with Kalamata olive and green-peppercorn notes spicing up the more standard cranberry and pomegranate flavors. It's quite vibrant and zesty.

$9.99

Parducci 2013 "Small Lot Blend" Cabernet Sauvignon (California)

This is a bold but well-balanced wine, with densely fruity aromas, and appealing flavors of pomegranate and blueberry. A layer of fine tannins adds a grippy mouthfeel, making it great with a roast chicken or grilled lamb chop.

88 Points Wine Enthusiast
$10.99

Landhaus Mayer 2015 Gruner Veltliner (Austria)

Citric force creates a pleasant vortex of green pear on this easy, zippy and full-fruited summer wine. Finishes with a lip-smacking fillip of bracing, lemony freshness. Almost like sherbet.

90 Points Wine Enthusiast

Black Slate 2014 "Porrera" Priorat (Spain)

A blend of 50% Garnacha with 40% Cariñena and the rest Cabernet Sauvignon. The nose is beautiful, combining violets, a hint of beef blood, something ashy and an organic, soil note, developing a smoky bacon twist with time in the glass. The palate shows good integration of the oak, better than in the majority of wines from this winery. Beautiful flowers appear with time and made me go back to the glass again and again.

92 Points Wine Advocate
$18.99

Chateau des Eyrins 2010 Margaux Bordeaux (France)

Quite tangy, with lots of lilac, blood orange, damson plum and loganberry fruit laced with an iron note. Pepper and mesquite chime in on the finish. Pleasantly taut, this relies more on minerality and perfume than a dense core. Drink now through 2020. 300 cases made.
