Wine of the Week!

Mulderbosch 2015 Sauvignon Blanc (South Africa)

Bright, light yellow. Alluring scents of fresh peach, gooseberry, nettles, white pepper, citrus pith and flinty minerality; time-capsule Sauvignon Blanc aromas from a great vintage. Rich, smooth and substantial but with perfectly integrated acidity giving definition and punch to its fruit and mineral flavors. Amazingly rich yet pungent Sauvignon Blanc with terrific purity and slowly rising length.

Mike's Picks of the Week!

Indaba 2016 Chenin Blanc (South Africa)
Fresh-cut green apple and white peach notes are laced with a makrut lime thread and backed by a bright honeysuckle accent on the finish.

Cycles Gladiator 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon (California)
Red cherry, ripe cranberry, blackberry and a rocky minerality show on the nose of this once popular twist-top, bicycle-sporting wine that's back on the market. The palate is very fruit forward with very ripe blackberry and red cherry fruit, enough grip to catch attention and a cigar box complexity.

Martinsancho 2015 Verdejo (Spain)
This Verdejo smells like citrus fruits and wild field grass, with a hint of feline aroma. Crisp and fresh, it offers flavors of melon, nectarine and nettle. A long, slightly salty finish is braced by bright acidity. Drink right away, if possible.

Domane Wachau 2016 Terrassen Federspiel Riesling (Austria)
The lovely, pure citrus hints suggested on the nose are fulfilled on the palate: aromatic tangerine peel and vivid, ripe Amalfi lemon. This has such lightness, ease and quintessential Wachau verve that you can't help going in for more. The finish is dry and irresistibly long.

Quartz Reef 2015 Pinot Noir (New Zealand)
Medium ruby-purple in color, the 2015 Pinot Noir exudes gorgeous violets, red roses and black cherry notes with underlying Provence herbs, dusty earth and cinnamon stick hints. Medium-bodied, the palate has a firm backbone of ripe, velvety tannins with lively acid supporting the concentrated, multi-layered flavors, finishing long. Spectacular Pinot Noir!
