Wine OF THE Week

Burgans 2017 Albarino (SPAIN)

Characteristic pit-fruit quality and richness in addition to the bracing minerality. The pale and light 2017 Burgans Albariño is easy to drink, with mellow flavors and a sweet touch on the finish.

Wagner 2017 "Select" Riesling (NEW YORK)

Defined aromas of apple, white blossoms, lime and stone shine in this off-dry riesling. The well-textured palate is succulent in feel, with a snappy orchard-fruit flavor that's backed by a waxy lemon note.

Raats Family 2018 "Original" Chenin Blanc (SOUTH AFRICA)

Offers straightforward, quite fragrant white flower and nectarine scents on the well-defined nose. The palate is well balanced with a pleasing citrus attack on the entry, followed by orange peel, a touch of peach skin and hints of elderflower toward the long, fresh finish. Very fine and a great value.

Tinto Negro 2016 Uco Valley Malbec (ARGENTINA)

A juicy and fruity wine yet tight and focused. Stone and sandy character. Cool and focused. On it. Drink now.

Tikves 2015 Vranec (MACEDONIA)

I liked the acidity and freshness here a lot. It's not a fleshy, rich wine, but it still adds intense flavors of newly-crushed cherries. It is a fine food wine—but tasty enough to be drunk on its own too. It might benefit from being drunk a little cooler than normal. This is a very nice value. It should continue to hold nicely for the next few years, at the least.

Clos de Fous 2016 "Subsoillum" Pinot Noir (CHILE)

This has an elegant nose with a fresh array of bright red cherries and strawberries that lead to a very plush and elegant palate with plenty of fine-boned tannins. Drink now.

Clos de Tafall 2016 Priorat (SPAIN)

Dry, schisty aromas are subdued for Priorat, a warm region known for its big-boned reds. A well-balanced palate is clean and uncomplicated, while this blend of Garnacha, Carignan and Cabernet Sauvignon tastes of ripe plum, raisin, spice and herbs. Drink this steady red through 2021.
