Mike's Picks of the Week!

Lurra 2015 Garnacha (Spain)

Brilliant ruby. Vibrant red berry and floral aromas show good clarity and hints of succulent herbs and licorice. Silky and seamless in texture, offering fresh raspberry and cherry flavors that pick up a spicy nuance with air. The floral note repeats on the clinging finish, which is framed by supple, even tannins.

Castello di Farnetella 2015 Chianti Colli Senesi (Italy)

Earthy with dried herbs and some fruit. Fruity palate, medium to full-bodied with a clean finish.

Viticchio 2015 "Bere" Toscana Rosso (Italy)

One of the most delicious Tuscan wines readers will find in its price range. Bold, juicy and exuberant, with tons of cherry jam, blackberry, herb, lavender and sweet spice. This is an especially rich, lusty style built on immediacy. Even so, its hard to argue with the quality given a price that often comes in below the full retail. Bere is a Sangiovese/Cabernet Sauvignon/Merlot blend.

Finca la Emperatriz 2011 Rioja (Spain)

Black cherry and plum flavors mingle with forest floor, smoke and tarry notes in this firm red. Focused and fresh, but the tannins turn a bit chewy. Decant. Drink now through 2021.

Mulderbosch 2015 Sauvignon Blanc (South Africa)

Bright, light yellow. Alluring scents of fresh peach, gooseberry, nettles, white pepper, citrus pith and flinty minerality; time-capsule Sauvignon Blanc aromas from a great vintage. Rich, smooth and substantial but with perfectly integrated acidity giving definition and punch to its fruit and mineral flavors. This cuvee includes a good percentage of cool-climate fruit in 2015, which contributes to the wine's density and verve. Amazingly rich yet pungent Sauvignon Blanc with terrific purity and slowly rising length.

Argyle 2015 Willamette Valley Pinot Noir (Oregon)

Lithe and elegant, with pretty cherry and orange blossom aromas and long, harmonious flavors that glide along.
