Mike's Picks of the Week!

Paxis 2013 Red (Portugal)

This dark, structured wine, with its balanced blend of Touriga Nacional, Touriga Franca and Tinta Roriz, is firm with tannins and dense berry fruits. Full in the mouth, it is a concentrated wine that brings out a strongly chalky texture. The wine is still moving towards a rich future.

Tenuta Rapitala 2015 Terre Siciliane Piano Maltese (Italy)

The 2015 Piano Maltese is an excellent value wine that represents a blend of Grillo, Catarratto and Chardonnay. Some 155,000 bottles are produced. Bright luminosity and golden highlights describe its appearance. The wine's performance is similarly fresh and tonic with citrus, white peach and wild sage.

Red Newt Cellars 2014 Dry Riesling (New York)

Hints of smoke and bramble linger from nose to finish, lending a savory complexity to this dry-style Riesling. It's spry and invigorating, juxtaposing tart pineapple and lemon flavors against a backdrop of pressed apple and pear. The finish extends long with an elegant mineral tinge.

Glenelly 2014 "Glass Collection" Cabernet Sauvignon (South Africa)

Direct, with a good jolt of cherry preserves and cassis, backed by light-handed, vanilla-accented toast. Drink now through 2018.

Roagna 2015 Dolcetto d'Alba (Italy)

Deceptively medium in body, the 2015 offers lovely palate presence and tons of intensity. Dark red cherry, blueberry, violet, mint and licorice all give the 2015 its super-classic flavor profile. Time in the glass brings out the wine's breadth and power, but I would prefer to give the wine a few more months in bottle to fully come together.

Barrel Monkeys 2013 Shiraz (Australia)

Glass-staining ruby. Powerful aromas of mineral-tinged dark fruit preserves, cherry pit, licorice and violet, with a smoky quality in the background. Fleshy and energetic on the palate, offering gently sweet blackberry and cherry compote flavors complicated by notes of fruitcake and bitter chocolate. The spice and mineral qualities come back on the persistent finish, which is framed by smooth, slow-building tannins.
