Wine of the Week!

Lafage 2015 "Bastide Miraflores" Cotes Catalanes (France)

This wine is almost too good to be true. A blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Grenache. It's a ripe, sexy, heady beauty that exhibits a deep, purple color as well as killer notes of smoked meats, chocolate, blackberry and black raspberries. Deep, unctuous, open knit and layered, it continues to change in the glass, has a seamless and silky profile, and not a hard edge to be found. It's a sensational value that needs to be tasted to be believed. Drink it anytime over the coming 2-4 years.

Mike's Picks of the Week!

The Exhibitionist 2014 Merlot (Australia)
A savory and elegant merlot, this has a mushroom fruitiness and red plum richness. It's sappy and bright, but not sweet. For steak with mushrooms.

Castano 2013 Solanera (Spain)
Aged 10 months in French and American oak. Aged equal parts in tank and the other half in French oak. Has a dense purple color, a big sweet kiss of blueberry and blackberry fruit mixed with crushed chalk, a full-bodied mouthfeel, beautiful purity, density and richness. The oak is well concealed by the lavish fruit—the wine just amazing. Drink it over the next 2-3 years, as these powerhouses are best consumed in their exuberant and extroverted youth.

Martinsancho 2015 Verdejo (Spain)
This Verdejo smells like citrus fruits and wild field grass, with a hint of feline aroma. Crisp and fresh, it offers flavors of melon, nectarine and nettle. A long, slightly salty finish is braced by bright acidity. Drink right away, if possible.

Domaine Triennes 2016 Rose' (France)
Light pink. Strawberry, herbs and a hint of orange zest on the pungent nose and in the mouth. In a taut, racy style, offering good depth of flavor but no excess fat. Clean, focused and nervy on the finish, where a touch of white pepper adds spiciness and cut. This graceful wine drinks very nicely on its own, but it also has the heft to work with full-flavored food.

Lanciola 2011 Chianti Classico (Italy)
Ours to austere and masculine notes of dried cherry fruit, cigar box and dark barbecue spice. Fruit comes from the Impruneta area of Tuscany on the northern side of the appellation. There's a sweet note in the mouth and a distant tone of animal or used leather that could become more evident with time.
