Pacific Rim 2021 Sweet Riesling (Washington)
Aromas of jasmine, flower, apricot and peach lead to medium-sweet stone-fruit flavors. The sweetness and acidity play well off each other. It brings a lot of value.

Trimbach 2019 Pinot Blanc (France)
Bottled in December 2020, Trimbach's 2019 Pinot Blanc shows a clear, fresh and finely smoky aroma of ripe apples and pears. The wine is round and juicy as well as savory on the pretty potent palate, and it reveals stimulating saline acidity. Very good indeed.

Monte Rio 2020 Lodi Zinfandel (California)
A typical nose for zinfandel. Certainly there is red and black fruit, but it is not overly dense or inky, but rather open and bright. Medium-bodied with rock-salt minerality. Ripe red and black fruit are lifted by bright acidity. Spice comes through clearly at the finish. Well balanced.
