90 Points James Suckling • $10.99

MIKE’S 4TH OF JULY PICKS!

Bogle 2018 Sauvignon Blanc (California)
Lemon-lime flavors are fresh and bright, with juicy acidity and lime zest notes on the finish.
88 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST • $7.99

Peirano 2017 “The Illusion” Red (California)
Jammy and ripe, with moderate cherry pie and licorice flavors. Zinfandel, Merlot, Petite Sirah and Cabernet Sauvignon.
86 POINTS WINE SPECTATOR • $10.99

Lamoreaux Landing 2019 Rose’ (New York)
This Cabernet Franc rose shows a pleasing intensity of white blossoms, white strawberry, crushed herbs and pink grapefruit on the nose. It’s plush and juicy on the palate, with well-balanced acidity that lifts it to flavors of creamy strawberry and herbs that linger on the finish.
90 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST • $12.49

Kings Ridge 2018 Pinot Noir (Oregon)
Among a growing lineup of inexpensive Pinot Noirs from the Union Wine Company, this is the most widely available, though virtually indistinguishable from some of the rest. It’s tannic, with a mix of dried herbs and dark red and black fruits.
88 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST • $14.99

Duck Pond 2018 Pinot Gris (Oregon)
Fleshy pear fruit carries this appealing wine, lightly spiced and hinting at freshly picked green herbs. It’s not quite as complex as the previous vintage, but nonetheless a delicious wine and a fine value.
89 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST • $12.49

Hoerner 2017 Limited Release Riesling (New York)
It smells like a spring day in a fruit orchard, like orange blossoms, wheat and cracked sunflower seeds. And the texture is textbook Finger Lakes, with an almost synesthetic quality: It gives an impression of streaming water, of a brook rushing over stones, slatey and pristine.
