Wine OF THE Week

ESPORAO 2018 "MONTE VELHO" RED (PORTUGAL)

This brand, popular in Portugal, is very drinkable when young. Its soft texture and easy, juicy black fruits are integrated and full of vibrant acidity.

87 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST

$7.99

LEGENDARY 2018 CABERNET SAUVIGNON (ROMANIA)

This Romanian Cabernet Sauvignon is dark garnet in the glass, with aromas of red cherry, red plum and vanilla. In the mouth, there are flavors of black cherry, red cherry and black plum before the soft tannic finish.

85 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST

$5.99

TILIA 2019 MALBEC/SYRAH (ARGENTINA)

This has attractive aromas of ripe blackberries on offer with some lightly spicy complexity. The palate has a big core of ripe sweet fruit with easygoing style. Drink now. Screw cap.

90 POINTS JAMES SUCKLING

$9.99

ESTEFANIA 2015 "TILENUS" BIERZO (SPAIN)

With notes of orange peel, spices and wild berries, the 2015 Tilenus Roble represents a small step up from the unoaked Mencia. Cropped from a warm year that produced healthy grapes, it has a palate with grip provided by some fine tannins that make it ideal with food. 66,000 bottles produced.

89+ POINTS WINE ADVOCATE

$9.49

CASTELFEDER 2018 PINOT GRIGIO (ITALY)

Aromas of orchard fruits and yellow spring flowers mingle with a whiff of nut. The rounded palate shows yellow apple, Bartlett pear and a hint of white almond before a juicy close.

88 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST

$15.99

FERRERO 2016 "PEPITA" TOSCANA ROSSO (ITALY)

A very deep, dark-fruited nose with elderberries, cassis, blackberry pie and vanilla. The overt fruitiness is held together by quite a suave conjunction of chewy tannins, and the undertones of undergrowth are really juicy and mouthwatering. Drink from 2021.

92 POINTS JAMES SUCKLING

$18.99

LEMELSON 2016 "THEA'S" PINOT NOIR (OREGON)

This entry-level blend bangs a home run in this vintage. From its lush, lightly musky nose to its rich pie-worthy mix of blueberries, blackberries and cherries, this is simply irresistible. Well-woven Asian spices and light seams of chocolate, coffee and black tea all combine in a thoroughly satisfying, beautifully integrated wine with another half decade of life ahead.
