Wine OF THE Week

CHÂTEAU ROUTAS 2019 PROVENCE ROSE' (FRANCE)

Another beautiful bottle of rosé with sliced-apple, peach and light stone character. It's medium-to full-bodied with pretty fruit and a bright finish. Lots of flint and stone undertones to the fruit. Drink now. Screw cap.

91 POINTS JAMES SUCKLING

$12.49

UNDERWOOD BUBBLES (OREGON)

Aromas of bubblegum, cherry and lemon drop candy carry the nose, with fruit-driven flavors on the palate that are crisp and balanced. For an inexpensive, mass-produced bottle of fizz, it raises the bar for the entire region.

90 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST

$5.49/375ml can

LA TREMENDA 2016 MONASTRELL (SPAIN)

Inky ruby. Ripe black/blue fruits, dark chocolate and a hint of espresso on the deeply perfumed nose and in the mouth. In a lush, weighty style with solid closing punch, round tannins and a repeating dark fruit note that shows a touch of jamminess. (raised in a combination of used American oak barrels and stainless steel tanks)

88 POINTS VINOUS

$8.99

SARDUS PATER 2017 "IS SOLUS" CARIGNANO (ITALY)

This big, rich, earthy red already has satisfying balance and it's not even one year old, the alcohol well integrated and the tannins gentle. Drink now with hearty fall and winter dishes.

90 POINTS JAMES SUCKLING

$9.49

DURIGUTTI 2018 MALBEC (ARGENTINA)

There's a very fresh array of ripe red plums that pervade the nose and palate and hold fresh and juicy in an approachable mode. Drink or hold.

90 POINTS JAMES SUCKLING

$13.99

CATENA 2018 CLASSIC CHARDONNAY (ARGENTINA)

The balsamic, smoky and spicy white 2018 Catena Chardonnay is a blend of different vineyards matured in oak barrels for ten months. This is a fresh and varietal bottling with good balance; and the wine comes through as a balanced combination of fruit and oak with a pleasant mouthfeel. It's really excellent for the price asked.

91 POINTS WINE ADVOCATE

$15.49

VAGLIO 2018 "AGGIE" MALBEC (ARGENTINA)

Wonderful intensity of crushed berries, pink pepper and volcanic salt. Full-bodied, yet fresh and vivid with energy and focus. Extremely long and flavorful. Drink or hold.

95 POINTS VINOUS
