Wine OF THE Week

RAMOS 2018 RESERVA (PORTUGAL)

WHILE IT IS RICH, THIS WINE IS ALSO ELEGANT. RIPE TANNINS ARE EFFORTLESSLY INTEGRATED WITH THE BLACKBERRY FRUITS, MATURING STRUCTURE AND JUICY AFTERTASTE.

MOHUA 2019 SAUVIGNON BLANC (NEW ZEALAND)

The excellent 2019 Marlborough vintage was clearly kind to this wine. It wraps flavors of passion fruit, lemon-lime and snow pea into a chalky texture sliced through with zippy acidity and a long, tangy finish. Bright, refreshing and destined for poolside sipping.

LAPOSTOLLE 2019 "LE ROSE" (CHILE)

Le Rose is sourced from a selection of the best lots of Cinsault, Syrah, Grenache, and Mourvedre. All Grapes were harvested earlier in the season to keep a high level of acidity. This is the best rose in Chile with sliced white peaches and hints of lemons and flowers. Medium-bodied, fresh and dry. Drink now.

CHATEAU PESQUIE 2017 "CUVEE TERRASSES" COTES DU VENTOUX (FRANCE)

The essence of kirsch liqueur, wild strawberries, and wildflowers flow to a full-bodied, plump, deep, beautifully layered and sexy wine that has medium to full body, ripe tannins, notable minerality, and a great finish. A blend of 60% Grenache and 40% Syrah that was all destemmed and brought up in concrete tanks, this is a raw, naked expression of this fabulous terroir located just south of Mount Ventoux.
